MILLER'S MUMBLINGS.....

“To Tell the Story.....”

Advent

That could be the theme of the Dingmans Ferry United Methodist Church-“to tell the story.” Why, great balls of fire! We have been in this town a long time. We continue to tell the story of God’s love! We do it through Free meals, Free clothes, Free Vacation Bible School and your gifts. Ministry through the Outreach Fund..... And our new Playground for the community---- and the Tree of Life- the best Nursery School in the Pike wilderness. You can take that to the bank!

Why, we do world missions as well! How about Red Bird, UMCOR and Sandy Relief! AND of course we are growing every day in our Shared Ministry to the Greater New Jersey Annual Conference. We hope to hit 50% of our Shared Ministry by December 31, 2013. A long way from 29% in 2012: Great going good Molly! We are doing it. Thanks to you and all you have been doing. If you haven’t been part of what’s happening, it’s time to get on the wagon. We surely miss you. Without you, we are missing one of the beloved in God’s family.

Sure, we moved from Rt. 209 a few decades ago. Had to move up from the river. Uncle Sam gave us little choice. Thanks to our good folks who would not give up- we made it. They are the SAINTS of the church- Tell them you love them!

Your ministry will continue “To Tell the Story.” In order to do this we need to keep our church building and mission in order. Remember the vows of membership; I will support the work of the church with my prayers, presence, gifts, service and witness.

Well folks, we want to continue that legacy “To Tell the Story.” In order to do the will of God to remember the Saints of the church – we enter Finance Campaign 2014.

We plan to have a few get-togethers called “Pasta with the Pastor” at the parsonage. You will receive an invitation. I would really like to have you join us. If can can’t make one of those gatherings, I plan to have a short brunch/lunch gathering after church for both the 9 and 11AM services on November 10th.....to share a few stories. I would really love to have you join me for dinner at the parsonage. Could you do that? If you don’t receive an invitation –call me. (845) 820-3950

Well that’s my story and I’m sticking to it! Please pass the plate! The PASTA PLATE of course. What were you thinking?

Your servant, Doug Miller of Mumblings

Supporting Our College Students

Packages Sent Out With Prayer.....

One Sunday in October the youth Sunday School class under the direction of Will Joseph fulfilled the final stages of our Encouragement Packages project. That day they filled 16 boxes with your donations for our college students. Their task done, the class gathered around the completed boxes and prayed.

We thank God once again for your faithfulness in reaching out to our college students as they study and seek God's direction in their lives.

Walkers Make a Witness

It was a beautiful sunny afternoon as the walkers in their bright blue shirts left the Fireman's Pavilion at Airport Park for the 7th Annual Tri-State CROPWALK. The early total raised is $11,272 with more money coming in. Our team of 21 walkers raised $1,747. Our team included Mary and Tess Balton, Linda Rutledge, Caren Shimanski, Will, Melissa, Ben and Spencer Joseph, Art Ridley, Pam and Rebecca Riddlehoover, Faith Woegens, Eileen Rowe, Laura Wright, Teresa, Logan, Landon, Hailey, Kara Tarquini, and Rich and Elaine Cooper.

God bless your faithfulness in helping hungry people by walking and/or sponsoring.

We're heading into the winter months.

...CAN YOU HELP?

Pastor Doug uses the Outreach Fund at his discretion to help people in need of help with all kinds of emergencies including heat, electricity, medical, and etc. The Pastor's Outreach Fund is only made possible by our donations. If you would like make a donation to the Outreach Fund, please place a check (made out to DFUMC) or cash into an envelope and mark it "Outreach" and we will be sure to deposit it into the proper account.

Your church financial record will reflect your donation.

MORE....MISSIONS•MISSIONS•MISSIONS

Our Vision:

Hope emerges where residents, businesses, organizations, government, and institutions work together to heal communities.

Our Mission:

A Future with Hope repairs and rebuilds homes, communities, organizations and systems by strengthening community leadership, engaging neighborhood people, and releasing local assets.

Our Goals:

1. Provide case management for families and individuals to help them access the necessary resources and information to rebuild their lives.
2. Provide counseling for individuals and families impacted by the storm.
3. Repair homes damaged by Superstorm Sandy, focusing on the elderly, low-income and those with disabilities.
4. Recruit, train, house, feed and coordinate volunteers from New Jersey and across the country to repair homes.
5. Raise $23 million in financial donations.
6. Acquire and manage $50 million of in-kind supplies and volunteer services for rebuilding hope.

In the next 5 years, 20,000 volunteers will rebuild 300-500 homes and provide HOPE to families whose lives were devastated by Superstorm Sandy. Join us!

United Methodist Church Continues to Send Relief..

The best way to help right now, is by donating to the GNJ Sandy Relief Fund. The Greater N.J. Annual Conference (GNJAC) has established the GNJ Sandy Relief Fund to help with the relief, recovery, rebuilding, and renewal of those affected by Superstorm Sandy, with a focus on the elderly and low-income residents as well as parsonages and church buildings.

For your convenience, you may make checks out to the local church (DFUMC) and our church treasurer will forward all parishioner donations for you. Please make "Sandy Relief" notation on the memo line of your check.

Read: John 1:1-14

The Word became flesh and dwelt among us, and we beheld His glory. ~John 1:14
Christians are divided in their views of Christmas. Some want to give up on it and hand it over to the stores. Others want to salvage it and use it to say something important about the birth of Jesus to a weary secular world. I, for one, would like to take my place with the second group.

Years ago an old pioneer journeyed westward across the Great Plains of North America until he came to an abrupt halt at the edge of the Grand Canyon. He gawked at the sight before him—a vast chasm 1 mile deep, 18 miles across, and stretching out of sight. He gasped, “Something must have happened here!”

At the Christmas season, anyone who stops to look and listen must ask what the hustle and bustle is all about. A thoughtful man or woman, seeing the lights, the decorations, the festivities, and the religious services might also conclude, “Something must have happened here!”

Of course, something did happen. We need to tell the world about it. God has visited our planet. His Son Jesus Christ came to reveal God and to die for our sins (John 1:1-14). It's the best news ever! The Lord came and lived among us that we might live forever with Him.

That's why we can rejoice at Christmas.

One day has left its mark in time
For all mankind to see;
It is the day when Christ was born—
That day made history. —D. De Haan

To make the most of Christmas, focus on Christ.
