The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil,
For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory, forever. Amen

My heart is o - ver-flow - ing. my love just keeps on grow-ing.
here in the grace of God I stand. And I will praise
You, Lord, yes I will praise You, Lord, and I will sing
of all that You have done.
A joy that knows no lim - it, a light-ness in my spi - rit,
here in the grace of God I stand.

Scripture Reading

Galatians 6:1-18

¹ Brothers and sisters, if someone is caught in a sin, you who live by the Spirit should restore that person gently. But watch yourselves, or you also may be tempted. ² Carry each other's burdens, and in this way you will fulfill the law of Christ.

³ If anyone thinks they are something when they are not, they deceive themselves. ⁴ Each one should test their own actions. Then they can take pride in themselves alone, without comparing themselves to someone else, ⁵ for each one should carry their own load.

⁶ Nevertheless, the one who receives instruction in the word should share all good things with their instructor. ⁷ Do not be deceived: God cannot be mocked. A man reaps what he sows. ⁸ Whoever sows to please their flesh, from the flesh will reap destruction; whoever sows to please the Spirit, from the Spirit will reap eternal life.

⁹ Let us not become weary in doing good, for at the proper time we will reap a harvest if we do not give up. ¹⁰ Therefore, as we have opportunity, let us do good to all people, especially to those who belong to the family of believers.

¹¹ See what large letters I use as I write to you with my own hand!

¹² Those who want to impress people by means of the flesh are trying to compel you to be circumcised. The only reason they do this is to avoid being persecuted for the cross of Christ.

¹³ Not even those who are circumcised keep the law, yet they want you to be circumcised that they may boast about your circumcision in the flesh. ¹⁴ May I never boast except in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, through which the world has been crucified to me, and I to the world.

¹⁵ Neither circumcision nor uncircumcision means anything; what counts is the new creation. ¹⁶ Peace and mercy to all who follow this rule—to the Israel of God.

¹⁷ From now on, let no one cause me trouble, for I bear on my body the marks of Jesus. ¹⁸ The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit, brothers and sisters. Amen.

“This is the Word of God.” “Thanks be to God.”

Prayer of People

(Nancy Townley. Adapted.)

Gracious and Loving God, creator and renewer of all things,
we gather together, resting in the transformative power of your grace.

Whenever we look for outward values in our lives, remind us that what truly matters is the new creation that you form within us and among us through the cross of Jesus Christ.

Forgive us, Lord,
when the heavy burdens of this world
—sickness, hardship, sorrow, and despair—
wear down our spirits and make us feel bound by fear.

Lift our eyes beyond the anxieties of the moment
and fix our hearts on your renewing Spirit.
Sow in us seeds of eternal life, righteousness, and peace.

Teach us to walk together as your new community.
Give us gentle and humble hearts to bear one another's burdens,
fulfilling the law of Christ in authentic love.

When we grow weary in doing good,
renew our strength and steadfastness,
trusting that in due season
we will reap a harvest of blessing.

We lift to you those near and dear to our hearts
who are in need of healing, comfort, and restoration, remembering that we, too, stand in daily need of your grace.

Transform our minds and guide our actions
so that everything we say, think, and do may testify to your renewing love...
