The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from the evil one.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory, forever. Amen

L: Let the radiance of Christ be evident among us:

P: in our songs and our words;

L: in our deepest thoughts and desires;

P: in the youthful and the experienced,

the exhausted and the energetic;

L: in the hungry and the scared.

P: We are here together, joining our voices and our hearts in prayer.

Holy God, who revealed the Messiah on the mountain,

fill us with your mysterious visions.

Light our way; direct our course; and empower us,

for we have one more mountain to climb,

through Jesus Christ, who is the light. Amen.

2 Peter 1:16-21

¹⁶For we did not follow cleverly devised myths when we made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we had been eyewitnesses of his majesty.

¹⁷ For he received honor and glory from God the Father when that voice was conveyed to him by the Majestic Glory, saying, “This is my Son, my Beloved, with whom I am well pleased.” ¹⁸ We ourselves heard this voice come from heaven, while we were with him on the holy mountain.

¹⁹ So we have the prophetic message more fully confirmed. You will do well to be attentive to this as to a lamp shining in a dark place, until the day dawns and the morning star rises in your hearts.

²⁰ First of all you must understand this, that no prophecy of scripture is a matter of one's own interpretation, ²¹ because no prophecy ever came by human will, but men and women moved by the Holy Spirit spoke from God.

Matthew 17:1-9

¹ Six days later, Jesus took with him Peter and James and his brother John and led them up a high mountain, by themselves. ² And he was transfigured before them, and his face shone like the sun, and his clothes became bright as light.

³ Suddenly there appeared to them Moses and Elijah, talking with him. ⁴ Then Peter said to Jesus, “Lord, it is good for us to be here; if you wish, I will set up three tents here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah.”

⁵ While he was still speaking, suddenly a bright cloud overshadowed them, and a voice from the cloud said, “This is my Son, the Beloved; with him I am well pleased; listen to him!” ⁶ When the disciples heard this, they fell to the ground and were overcome by fear.

⁷ But Jesus came and touched them, saying, “Get up and do not be afraid.” ⁸ And when they raised their eyes, they saw no one except Jesus himself alone.

⁹ As they were coming down the mountain, Jesus ordered them, “Tell no one about the vision until after the Son of Man has been raised from the dead.”

“This is the Word of God.” “Thanks be to God.”

Prayer of People

L: Holy and loving God,
whose nature and ways are far beyond our understanding,
we thank you for the gift of your Son Jesus,
who lets us see your face in his,
who shows us your love in his actions,
your grace in his manner of being.

P: In him too, O God, we see ourselves
as you would have us be
and as your power is able to make us.
Make us more like him now we pray. Lord, hear our prayer.

L: Lord - we often find ourselves weary, tired out by a load of care, a heap of responsibility and concern.
We sometimes forget to stop to eat and drink at your table.

P: Lord, we are here now, and we ask you.
Grant us a glimpse of your glory, fill us with your spirit, refresh us and make us new. Lord, hear our prayer.

L: Loving God, we pray that your glory may fill your church
and give to your people everywhere the power to shine
wherever there is darkness, disunity, persecution, or despair.

P: Lord, we pray for those we named in our sharing time
and for all those whose names are upon our hearts.
Grant to them healing and wholeness, peace and joy,
strength and hope. Lord, hear our prayer.

(Silence)

All: Give us all, O Lord,
a greater love of your holiness,
a greater delight in your mystery,
and a greater joy in seeking your presence.
We ask it through Christ Jesus,
who revealed your will to us
and who taught us to pray to you as one family, saying Our Father....

The musical score is written for a vocal ensemble (Soprano, Alto, Tenor, Bass) and piano accompaniment. It is in the key of D major (two sharps) and 4/4 time. The score is divided into six systems, each with a vocal staff and a piano staff. The lyrics are written below the vocal staff. The piano part provides harmonic support with chords and melodic lines. The score includes dynamic markings such as mf (mezzo-forte) and mp (mezzo-piano). The final system includes a first ending (1.) and a second ending (2.) for the vocal part, with a trill (T.B.) marking for the piano part.
