The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from the evil one.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory, forever. Amen

Scripture Reading: Genesis 12:1-9

¹ Now the LORD said to Abram, "Go from your country and your kindred and your father's house to the land that I will show you. ² I will make of you a great nation, and I will bless you and make your name great, so that you will be a blessing. ³ I will bless those who bless you, and the one who curses you I will curse, and in you all the families of the earth shall be blessed."

⁴ So Abram went, as the LORD had told him, and Lot went with him. Abram was seventy-five years old when he departed from Haran. ⁵ Abram took his wife Sarai and his brother's son Lot and all the possessions that they had gathered and the persons whom they had acquired in Haran, and they set forth to go to the land of Canaan.

When they had come to the land of Canaan, ⁶ Abram passed through the land to the place at Shechem, to the oak of Moreh. At that time the Canaanites were in the land. ⁷ Then the LORD appeared to Abram and said, "To your offspring I will give this land." So he built there an altar to the LORD, who had appeared to him.

⁸ From there he moved on to the hill country on the east of Bethel and pitched his tent, with Bethel on the west and Ai on the east, and there he built an altar to the LORD and invoked the name of the LORD. ⁹ And Abram journeyed on by stages toward the Negeb.

Sermon "When God Comes to a Flawed Family: Hope" Pastor Sung

Centering for Prayer

Silence

Prayer of People

Almighty God,
You called Abraham to leave the familiar and step into the unknown, offering a promise of hope when there was no reason to hope.
Yet, like him, we often wander on our own,
trying to find our own way,
ignoring your voice until we are completely lost.

Forgive our stubbornness.
Remind us, gracious God, that we are your children,
who always need you and your grace.
When our flaws make us doubt the future,
let your promises be our anchor.
We humbly ask you to ignite hope within our hearts.
In the name of Christ, our companion on this journey of faith. Amen.

Passing the Peace of Christ

Bring Forth the Kingdom

1 You are— salt for the earth, O peo-ple: salt for the king-dom of God!
2 You are a light on a hill, O peo-ple: light for the cit - y of God!
3 You are a seed of the Word, O peo-ple: live for the king-dom of God!

share the fla-vor of life, O peo-ple: life in the king-dom of God!
shine so ho-ly and bright, O peo-ple: shine for the king-dom of God!
seeds of mer-cy and seeds of jus-tice, grow in the king-dom of God!

Bring forth the king-dom of mer-cy; pray for the king-dom of peace;

work for the king-dom of jus-tice; hope for the cit-y of God!
