The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil,
For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory, forever. Amen

 Scripture Reading Galatians 2:11-20

¹¹ But when Cephas came to Antioch, I opposed him to his face because he stood self-condemned, ¹² for until certain people came from James, he used to eat with the gentiles. But after they came, he drew back and kept himself separate for fear of the circumcision faction.

¹³ And the other Jews joined him in this hypocrisy, so that even Barnabas was led astray by their hypocrisy. ¹⁴ But when I saw that they were not acting consistently with the truth of the gospel, I said to Cephas before them all, “If you, though a Jew, live like a gentile and not like a Jew, how can you compel the gentiles to live like Jews?”

¹⁵ We ourselves are Jews by birth and not gentile sinners, ¹⁶ yet we know that a person is justified not by the works of the law but through the faith of Jesus Christ. And we have come to believe in Christ Jesus, so that we might be justified by the faith of Christ and not by doing the works of the law, because no one will be justified by the works of the law.

¹⁷ But if, in our effort to be justified in Christ, we ourselves have been found to be sinners, is Christ then a servant of sin? Certainly not! ¹⁸ But if I build up again the very things that I once tore down, then I demonstrate that I am a transgressor.

¹⁹ For through the law I died to the law, so that I might live to God. I have been crucified with Christ, ²⁰ and it is no longer I who live, but it is Christ who lives in me. And the life I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself for me.

²¹ I do not nullify the grace of God, for if righteousness comes through the law, then Christ died for nothing.

 How Do You Handle Conflicts?

Prayer of People

(Adam Hood. Adapted)

Our God, Creator and Redeemer,
 have mercy upon us,
 for often times quiet tensions and conflicts
 seem to dominate our everyday lives.

Help us today to find our hearts burning—
 not with a desire to win arguments or protect our pride,
 but with a love and compassion to your people.

Open our minds to the truth of the gospel.
 As we listen to cries of many people,
 may we hear Christ’s invitation
 to be crucified with him,
 to die to our self-preservation,
 and to respond to them by love as Christ taught us.

Forgive us when we wear ourselves down,
 with a pretence of righteousness,
 withdrawing from others to protect our own image.

Help us to walk in step with the truth of the gospel.
 Today, we want to throw off exhausting attempts to justify ourselves, resting completely in the grace of Christ who lives in us...
