Fourth Sunday after Pentecost, Year A

Opening Song

“How Great Is Our God”

1 The splen - dor of the King, 7 clothed in maj - es - ty;
 (2. And) age to age He stands, and time is in His hands;

Let all the earth re - jice, all the earth re - jice. He wraps
 Be - gin - ning and the End, Be - gin - ning and the End. The God -

Him - self in light, and dark - ness tries to hide, head, three in one, 7 Fa - ther, Spir - it, Son, and trem - bles at His voice, and trem - bles at His voice. How great the Li - on and the Lamb, the Li - on and the Lamb. How great is our God! Sing with me: How great is our God!

And all will see how great, how great is our God! 2And

Name a - bove all names, wor - thy of all praise.

My heart will sing: How great is our God!

Call to Worship & Passing the Peace of Christ (Lisa Hancock. Adapted)

L: When we feel alone, unable to find a way out of the wilderness that surrounds us, we cry out to God.

P: And God listens to us.

L: When we feel discouraged, unsure we are able to make ends meet, and worried that no matter how hard we work, it will never be enough, we cry out to God.

P: And God listens to us.

L: When we feel lost, unable to find the words for the grief and isolation, our hearts cry out to God.

P: And God pays attention to us.

L: Look around us! Under this sky, remember: You are not alone.
 God knows where you are, and God listens to the cries of our hearts.

P: We gather in this open sanctuary—bringing our joy, our weariness, our hopes, and our praise.

L: God is here, meeting us in the open air, breaking down the walls that divide us, and inviting us into a true rest.

P: We worship the One who hears us, sustains us, and guides us.

L: Worshiping our God together under one open sky,
 we are reminded that we do not walk through the wilderness alone.
 There are no walls and no barriers to God's grace.

P: May we truly listen to one another today, allowing God to guide us toward the cool, refreshing waters
 we need to continue on our journey as the family of God.

L: Just as the wind moves freely among these trees,
 let the peace of Christ move freely among us now, healing our hurts, calming our worries, and binding us together.
 Let us share that refreshing peace of Christ with one another.
 Look around this beautiful space, greet your neighbors with a smile, a warm welcome, and let them know they are not alone.

Passing the Peace of Christ
 “Peace be with you.” / “And also with you.”

Children’s Time

⁸ The child grew and was weaned, and Abraham made a great feast on the day that Isaac was weaned. ⁹ But Sarah saw the son of Hagar the Egyptian, whom she had borne to Abraham, playing with her son Isaac. ¹⁰ So she said to Abraham, “Cast out this slave woman with her son, for the son of this slave woman shall not inherit along with my son Isaac.”

¹¹ The matter was very distressing to Abraham on account of his son. ¹² But God said to Abraham, “Do not be distressed because of the boy and because of your slave woman; whatever Sarah says to you, do as she tells you, for it is through Isaac that offspring shall be named for you. ¹³ As for the son of the slave woman, I will make a nation of him also, because he is your offspring.”

¹⁴ So Abraham rose early in the morning and took bread and a skin of water and gave it to Hagar, putting it on her shoulder, along with the child, and sent her away. And she departed and wandered about in the wilderness of Beer-sheba.

¹⁵ When the water in the skin was gone, she cast the child under one of the bushes. ¹⁶ Then she went and sat down opposite him a good way off, about the distance of a bowshot, for she said, “Do not let me look on the death of the child.” And as she sat opposite him, she lifted up her voice and wept.

¹⁷ And God heard the voice of the boy, and the angel of God called to Hagar from heaven and said to her, “What troubles you, Hagar? Do not be afraid, for God has heard the voice of the boy where he is. ¹⁸ Come, lift up the boy and hold him fast with your hand, for I will make a great nation of him.” ¹⁹ Then God opened her eyes, and she saw a well of water. She went and filled the skin with water and gave the boy a drink.

²⁰ God was with the boy, and he grew up; he lived in the wilderness and became an expert with the bow. ²¹ He lived in the wilderness of Paran, and his mother got a wife for him from the land of Egypt.

“This is the Word of God.” “Thanks be to God.”

Song II

“What a Day That Will Be”

The musical score is written for a soprano and bass voice with piano accompaniment. It features two parts for each line of lyrics. The key signature has three flats (B-flat, E-flat, A-flat) and the time signature is 2/4. The score includes various musical notations such as treble and bass clefs, notes, rests, and dynamic markings like 'piano' and 'ritardando'. There are also numerical markings like '3' indicating triplets.

1 There is com - ing a day when no heart - aches shall come,
2 There'll be no sor - row there, no more bur - dens to bear.

1 No more clouds in the sky, no more tears to dim the eye; All is 2 No more sick - ness, no pain, no more part - ing o - ver there; And for -

1 peace for - ev - er - more on that hap - py gold - en shore; What a day,
2 ev - er I will be with the One who died for me; What a day,

1 glo - ri - ous day, that will be.
2 glo - ri - ous day, that will be. What a day that will be when my

Jes - us I shall see. And I look up - un His face, the One who saved me by His grace, When He takes me by the hand, and leads me through the Prom ised Land. What a day, glo - ri - ous day, that will be.

Centering for Prayer

Silence

Prayer of People

(PrayerKnowing-Jesus. Adapted)

O God,
You love us from our first breath,
walking beside us as we explore Your creation.
You do not abandon us when our families fracture,
when we make messy choices,
or when we begin to stray into the wilderness.

We thank You, God,
for loving us even when we are unloving,
for caring for us even when we are uncaring,
and for seeking us out when we wander far away.
Open our eyes today and give us a new perspective to see the refreshing wells of Your grace right in the middle of our flaws and anxieties.

Hear our prayers for those around us carrying heavy burdens of grief, isolation, or despair:
Lord, hear our prayers.

The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from the evil one.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory, forever. Amen
