The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from the evil one.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory, forever. Amen

Fifth Sunday after Pentecost, Year A

Opening Hymn	“Great Is Thy Faithfulness”	#140	Prayer of People	(MaryAnn Rennie. Adapted)
Welcome		Pastor Sung	Gracious Lord, we humbly ask you to come to our daily living, so that we may not stumble through the tasks of life.
Call to Worship / Opening Prayer	(Lisa Hancock. Adapted)		Forgive us if our ears have not been open to the sound of Your gentleness, and so with frustration and anger, and if we have turned on those we love and cherish and brought hurt and division to life.
L: When our way seems unclear, and we are surrounded by conflicts, P: God will provide.
L: Even when we are trying to be faithful and seem to have no good choices available to us, P: God will provide.			Have mercy upon us, when our eyes do not notice the beauty of our surroundings, when we forget to steward the whole creation You have made.
L: When we are led by those we trust into incomprehensible situations, P: God will provide.			In prayer, we remember You invite us to choose between the path of darkness and the path of light, and laying our sorrow and failure on the ground, we long for Your forgiveness to call us towards life with You.
L: Family in Christ, we gather today to worship our God, who meets us in places of fear, confusion, and despair. P: We worship our God, who provides, when no way can be found.			We wait to be reshaped by the fire of Your Holy Spirit, as new vigor spurs us to walk with You...
All: Lord, as we walked through the doors to this place of worship, we brought with us our cares, concerns, joys and our sorrows. Touch our hearts and heal us, Lord. Make us ready to become your faithful people. Amen.

¹ After these things God tested Abraham. He said to him, "Abraham!" And he said, "Here I am." ² He said, "Take your son, your only son Isaac, whom you love, and go to the land of Moriah and offer him there as a burnt offering on one of the mountains that I shall show you."

³ So Abraham rose early in the morning, saddled his donkey, and took two of his young men with him and his son Isaac; he cut the wood for the burnt offering and set out and went to the place in the distance that God had shown him. ⁴ On the third day Abraham looked up and saw the place far away.

⁵ Then Abraham said to his young men, "Stay here with the donkey; the boy and I will go over there; we will worship, and then we will come back to you." ⁶ Abraham took the wood of the burnt offering and laid it on his son Isaac, and he himself carried the fire and the knife. And the two of them walked on together.

⁷ Isaac said to his father Abraham, "Father!" And he said, "Here I am, my son." He said, "The fire and the wood are here, but where is the lamb for a burnt offering?" ⁸ Abraham said, "God himself will provide the lamb for a burnt offering, my son." And the two of them walked on together.

⁹ When they came to the place that God had shown him, Abraham built an altar there and laid the wood in order. He bound his son Isaac and laid him on the altar on top of the wood. ¹⁰ Then Abraham reached out his hand and took the knife to kill his son.

¹¹ But the angel of the LORD called to him from heaven and said, "Abraham, Abraham!" And he said, "Here I am." ¹² He said, "Do not lay your hand on the boy or do anything to him, for now I know that you fear God, since you have not withheld your son, your only son, from me."

¹³ And Abraham looked up and saw a ram, caught in a thicket by its horns. Abraham went and took the ram and offered it up as a burnt offering instead of his son.

¹⁴ So Abraham called that place "The LORD will provide," as it is said to this day, "On the mount of the LORD it shall be provided."

"This is the Word of God." "Thanks be to God."
