The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from the evil one.
For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory, forever. Amen

Centering for Prayer

Silence

Prayer: Palm Sunday Evelyn & Kassidy

L: Twenty centuries past, what city has not heard of your coming?

From the East to the West.

Surely the word has spread that you've come in peace, not violence to enrich, renew, transform our lives and bring us to shalom.

P: Blessed is the one who comes in the name of God.
Hosanna in the highest.

L: Twenty centuries past, what city has not heard of your church?

From Jerusalem to Dingmans Ferry.

Surely the message of acceptance, healing, confidence, in your royal entrance, has been passed on through faithful living.

P: Blessed is the one who comes in the name of God.
Hosanna in the highest.

L: Twenty centuries past, what city has not rejected you?

From the main street to the alleyway, surely the news is that this life is for taking, not giving and what stands in the way of this lifestyle must now be removed?

P: Blessed is the one who comes in the name of God.
Hosanna in the highest.

L: Twenty centuries past, what city does the Christ seek to enter?

From the gate to the temple,

surely the sign of the church free from pride, united in deed, must be the welcome the Christ longs for as he enters our city.

P: Blessed is the one who comes in the name of God.
Hosanna in the highest.

Matthew 2:1-11

¹ Jesus and his followers were coming closer to Jerusalem. But first they stopped at Bethphage at the hill called the Mount of Olives. From there Jesus sent two of his followers into town.

² He said to them, “Go to the town you can see there. When you enter it, you will find a donkey with her colt. Untie them both, and bring them to me. ³ If anyone asks you why you are taking the donkeys, tell them, ‘The Master needs them. He will send them back soon.’”

⁴ This showed the full meaning of what the prophet said:

⁵ “Tell the people of Zion,
‘Now your king is coming to you.

He is humble and riding on a donkey.

He is riding on a young donkey, born from a work animal.”

⁶ The followers went and did what Jesus told them to do. ⁷ They brought the mother donkey and the young donkey to him. They covered the donkeys with their coats, and Jesus sat on them.

⁸ On the way to Jerusalem, many people spread their coats on the road for Jesus. Others cut branches from the trees and spread them on the road. ⁹ Some of the people were walking ahead of Jesus. Others were walking behind him. They all shouted, “Praise to the Son of David!

‘Welcome! God bless the one who comes in the name of the Lord!’

Praise to God in heaven!”

¹⁰ Then Jesus went into Jerusalem. All the people in the city were confused. They asked, “Who is this man?”

¹¹ The crowds following Jesus answered, “This is Jesus. He is the prophet from the town of Nazareth in Galilee.”

“This is the Word of God.” “Thanks be to God.”

Philippians 2:5-11

⁵ In your life together, think the way Christ Jesus thought.

⁶ He was like God in every way, but he did not think that his being equal with God was something to use for his own benefit.

⁷ Instead, he gave up everything, even his place with God.

He accepted the role of a servant, appearing in human form.

During his life as a man,

⁸ he humbled himself by being fully obedient to God,
even when that caused his death—death on a cross.

⁹ So God raised him up to the most important place and gave him the name that is greater than any other name.

¹⁰ God did this so that every person will bow down to honor the name of Jesus. Everyone in heaven, on earth, and under the earth will bow.

¹¹ They will all confess, “Jesus Christ is Lord,”
and this will bring glory to God the Father.

He Has Made Me Glad

I will en-ter his gates with thanks-giv-ing in my heart, I will en-ter his courts with praise. I will say, "This is the day that the Lord has made." I will re-joyce, for he has made me glad.
 He has made me glad, he has made me glad. I will re-joyce, for he has made me glad. He has made me glad, he has made me glad, I will re-joyce, for he has made me glad.
