The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil,
For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory, forever. Amen

Twenty-Fourth Sunday after Pentecost, Year A

Opening Hymn "For the Beauty of the Earth" # 92

Welcome Pastor Sung

Call to Worship (Breakthrough. Adapted)

L: In the beginning,
God created all things and delighted in everything that was made.
P: Everything was given into our hands,
not to own, but to cherish and steward.

L: Beware lest we say in our hearts, "My own power and the strength of my hands have gotten me this wealth."
P: We remember the Lord our God,
for it is He who gives us life, talent, and strength!

L: You belong to God. You are loved by God.
You are entrusted with God's goodness to share with the world.
P: With one voice we thank God, we praise God, and we worship God.
Amen!

Hymn "We Are God's People" Insert

Scripture Reading Deuteronomy 8:11-20

11 "Take care that you do not forget the Lord your God by failing to keep his commandments, his ordinances, and his statutes that I am commanding you today.

12 When you have eaten your fill and have built fine houses and live in them 13 and when your herds and flocks have multiplied and your silver and gold is multiplied and all that you have is multiplied, 14 then do not exalt yourself, forgetting the Lord your God, who brought you out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of slavery,

15 who led you through the great and terrible wilderness, an arid wasteland with poisonous snakes and scorpions. He made water flow for you from flint rock.

16 He fed you in the wilderness with manna that your ancestors did not know, to humble you and to test you and in the end to do you good. 17 Do not say to yourself, 'My power and the might of my own hand have gotten me this wealth.'

18 But remember the Lord your God, for it is he who gives you power to get wealth, so that he may confirm his covenant that he swore to your ancestors, as he is doing today. 19 If you do forget the Lord your God and follow other gods to serve and worship them, I solemnly warn you today that you shall surely perish.

20 Like the nations that the Lord is destroying before you, so shall you perish, because you would not obey the voice of the Lord your God.

"This is the Word of God." "Thanks be to God."

Sermon Stewardship, not Ownership Pastor Sung

Centering for Prayer

Silence

Prayer of People (Nancy Townley. Adapted)

Gracious God, Giver of life and every good gift,
we come before You with grateful hearts.
We confess that we often claim ownership
over what You have merely entrusted to our care.

Forgive us for the times we boast in our own strength
and forget that our talents, wealth, and opportunities
come from Your hand alone.

Break in on our confusion, Lord.
Silence our self-reliance and wake us from the illusion
that we can sustain ourselves.

By Your Holy Spirit,
stir us to unpack the gifts we have kept hidden or buried.
Grant us the courage to use them lavishly
on the stewardship of Your world - feeding the hungry,
clothing the naked, and opening our hearts to our neighbors…

The Lord's Prayer (On The Screen)

Passing the Peace of Christ
"Peace be with you." / "And also with you."
