The Lord's Prayer

Our Father, who art in heaven,
hallowed be thy name;
thy kingdom come;
thy will be done;
on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our trespasses,
as we forgive those who trespass against us.
And lead us not into temptation;
but deliver us from evil,
For thine is the kingdom,
the power and the glory, forever. Amen

Scripture Reading Hebrews 10:19-25

19 Therefore, my brothers and sisters, since we have confidence to enter the sanctuary by the blood of Jesus, 20 by the new and living way that he opened for us through the curtain (that is, through his flesh),

21 and since we have a great priest over the house of God, 22 let us approach with a true heart in full assurance of faith, with our hearts sprinkled clean from an evil conscience and our bodies washed with pure water.

23 Let us hold fast to the confession of our hope without wavering, for he who has promised is faithful. 24 And let us consider how to provoke one another to love and good deeds,

25 not neglecting to meet together, as is the habit of some, but encouraging one another, and all the more as you see the Day approaching.

"This is the Word of God." "Thanks be to God."

Sermon Together, not Alone Pastor Sung

Centering for Prayer

Silence

Litany for Togetherness (WCC. Adapted)

L: United in Christ, who brings us near to God, let us pray:
For the Church, the Body of Christ, that we may step out of isolation and spur one another on toward love and good deeds.
P: God, our strength, change us by your grace.

L: For all believers, that we may recognize everything we have belongs to you, resisting the pull of materialism through shared generosity and accountability.
P: God, our strength, change us by your grace.

L: For our leaders and communities, that we may pool our gifts, wisdom, and resources to accomplish more for your Kingdom together than we ever could alone.
P: God, our strength, change us by your grace.

L: For the suffering, the lonely, and all households, that they may experience the joy and healing of true fellowship.
P: God, our strength, change us by your grace.
Lord, bind us together in friendship and faithful stewardship, now and always...
